WIAA rules apply with these exceptions

- Round Robin format, no frills, no awards. Each team will play three games.
- Games with consist of 2-18 minute halves. Clock will run for the first 16 minutes. Clock will stop on all dead ball situations during the final 2 minutes of each half
- 3-60 second time-outs per team, per game. No timeouts in overtime.
- Any defense allowed. No pressing allowed if ahead by 20 or more points (mercy rule)
- Halftime is 5 minutes. This may be reduced to stay on schedule.
- Technical foul shots will not be attempted. 2 points and the ball will be awarded to the offended team.
- Overtime will be 2 minutes with a regulation clock and no timeouts. If a second overtime is required, 1 minute with a regulation clock and no timeouts, and so on until there is a winner.
- Any technical foul relating to poor sportsmanship may result in immediate player, coach or spectator disqualification.
- Teams must report lineups to scorers table ten minutes prior to the start of their game. Five minute grace period before any team forfeits. No rosters changes after the start of your first game.
- All game results and decisions of the tournament organizing committee are final. There are "no protests". In the event of any unsettled disputes, WIAA rules will always take precedent.
- Teams must supply their own (well-marked) warm-up basketballs, as well as towels and medical supplies.
- Admission will be charged for everyone except players and two coaches per team. Concessions will be available. No carry-ins please. Thanks!!

The tournament organizing committee, the Southwest Youth Basketball, Green Bay Southwest High School and its coaches, staff and administration, and the Green Bay Area School District will not be held responsible for any injuries incurred by your team, any and all expenses, or lost or stolen articles.
